RUSSELL WINS FROM PALITZ

An exact duplication of the foul in the Leonard-Britton fight took place at Willow Point Casino on Wednesday evening when K. O. Palits of Norwich in the sixth round of their acheduled 12 round bout. Palits had been cautioned in both the fourth and fifth for hitting low and in the sixth after Russell went down on one knee Palits deliberately walked over and landed a heavy blow on Russell's jaw. Palits was disqualified and Russell was given the bout.

St. Lo Chicag Washi his work flat-focted and with an awk-wash in the best yet put on by the Mystic club and every fan that attended was satisfied. The crowd packed the hall to capacity and was orderly with perhaps the exception of the main bout when they started to ride Palits. The bout up to the sixth round had been fast and was practically an even break with perhaps a shade going to What promises to be a stubborn-Taftville will lineup as follows: Belair on the receiving end, Mike Morin will burn them over, Jack Murphy who played a stellar game at first last Saturday will again cover the initial sack, Paradis at the midway station. Whitney on the dizzy corner, H. Decelles will pastime around the short field. Bill Gley will patrol left field. A new man at center, and Jim Murphy will stop them from hitting the ledge at right field. The Ashland team will take the field as follows: Bill Liberte who received a tryout with Hartford will backstop. The pitching assignment is not certain. Hal Chase at first. B. Benjamin second. "Nap" Liberte, third, Leclair at short. Jarvis, Cyr and Raille will patrol the outer garden and neediess to say these three lads are some fly chasers.

ly contested baseball battle will take place Saturday afternoon, on the Providence Street grounds, Taftville, when the Ashiand A. A. cross bats with the Taftville A. A.

What promises to be a stubborn

Whenever teams representing these two towns meet in sports the fans are aroused and their pulse jumps to dever heat in anticipation of witness-ing a close struggle between these bit-fer rivals.

Saturday's game will be no excep-tion as Taftville is tied with New London for first place in the East-ern Connecticut league, with Jew-ett City a half game behind them. ett City a half game behind them.

A win for Ashland will place htem a notch above Taftville and Hal Chase the hustling Ashland manager has warned Taftville that he expects to annex this tilt, but Manager Frohmader the manager of the lively mill village has his pitching ace, Mike Morin all groomed and ready to turn back the invaders.

The fans who saw Mike hold the Moosup team to three hits last Saturday are anxious to see what story the Ashland boy's bats will unfold. It is not known who will twirl for Ashland but if "Spike" Liberte steps on the mound, he will have something to achieve and that is, to turn back the Taftville boys for the first time, a feat which he has never performed.

it was the return to the diamond of one of the greatest figures baseball fans have ever known—a victor in a grim fight with death.
